

Bio Christopher Tynan

Christopher Tynan is an Assistant Director of Data Science at the Competition & Markets Authority. He has worked on numerous digital cases for the CMA and is currently leading work on the area of Algorithmic Processing for the Digital Regulation Co-operation Forum (DRCF). He has extensive experience with the private sector's use of algorithmics, having spent over five years designing algorithms in financial services, and working as a senior data analyst at Spotify.